

DEXTER SOUTHFIELD

Upper School Summer Reading 2019-2020

Additional information about an all-upper school read for students and faculty is forthcoming. Please check back for updates!

Students are also expected to read the required books indicated for the grade level and/or classes they are entering. In the opening days of school, the students will be assessed on these books, and one of the titles will be used for the first writing assignment of the marking period.
